Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Saturday 10 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Unsettled at first but improving from midweek.

This Evening and Tonight:
While coastal showers may continue for much of the night any remaining showers inland will fade quickly as clear spells develop, allowing some mist patches to form inland. Areas of low cloud and mist may persist near the coast. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
After a dull start in places bright or sunny spells will develop through the day, but also isolated showers, these most likely for northern areas turning heavy at times. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday spells of rain or showers, both often heavy with a chance of thunder. Tuesday sunny spells and heavy showers, some with hail and thunder. Wednesday isolated showers, mainly dry.
